Flinders Archaeology and History Society Committee Nomination Form

Nominees agree to fulfill the requirements of their position, as set out in the ArcHSoc Constitution and the regulations for general committee. For more information on the requirements of the role, please contact the current executive committee.

Nominator: Date:

- Nominations are public. The nominator's name is required in the event that further information or clarification be required.
- Only one form per nominator will be accepted for each individual nominated. Any number of people may be nominated by an individual, so long as they meet the eligibility criteria.
- Nominators can nominate themselves.

Nominee:

- Nominator must have the permission of the nominee prior to submitting this form to the returning officer.
- Nominations should contain suitable comments/evidence.
- Nominees must agree to abide by the Flinders Archaeology and History Society's constitution and its regulations.
- Nominees must understand that being part of the Flinders ArcHSoc committee is a job, not a title.

Position nominee is being nominated for (please put first and second preferences):

Executive: President __, Vicea president __, Secretary __, Treasurer __.

General committee: First Year Representative__, Second Year Representative__, Third year Representative__, Honours Representative__, Masters Representative __, PhD Representative__, Indigenous Students Representative __, Dig It Editor __, Field Work Coordinator __, Social Coordinator__, History Representative__, Membership Officer__, Communication Officer__, Other*__

*Other members include those from other universities, members working in the profession, members who are not currently studying, alumni members, Associate Members, Honorary Life Members.

Please provide details of your/the nominee's ability to fulfil the duties for the nominated position, as set out in the Constitution and/or regulations for general committee. Include relevant information about the nominee's background and interests.

Add additional pages if more room is required.